Our destination is Hong Kong, the land rice and tea.

It is a bright September morning.
New York with her restless, bustling population is already active with traffic.
As we move out past the Battery we meet a Hamilton ferry-boat. She is crowded with passengers, for it is the hour for dry-goods clerk, the office-boy and the factory hand to go to their work. They all look smiling, they are well-dressed and the minute the boat touches the wharf and is creaking against its dingy timbers, go rushing up the street as though their lives depended on it.

Over our heads the sea gulls circle, making long even sweeps toward the open water; and the sea sparkles merrily as we go on to meet it.
Far in the offing a few idle fishing craft lay beamed under the lee of the "Highlands," their white sails flapping drowsily as the boats are tossed about in the tide.

Straight on we go!
On past the light-ship where we leave our pilot, down by Sandy Hook and away by gay Brighton. The tugboat whistles; it is the signal that she is to leave us.

Up go the sails to the tune of "Blow a man down." We wave a final adieu to the occupants of the tug-boat who go steaming back to New York; and behold we are alone.

The day soon draws toward evening; as if by magic the hours have flown one by the other, and now when the warm sunshiny pulses in the western horizon the errant winds fling to the breese a shower of russet leaves and wintered blossoms and like the departing glory of this fair autumnal day the land slowly fades from our vision. We know that we have seen the last of America for a year, at least.

If the world seemed large to me while I was yet in my own country that delusion was emphatically dispelled when I awoke one morning to find myself on the other side of it. Not that our journey thither had been a remarkably speedy one; quite the contrary. But it did appear rather odd that while we were many thousand miles from America even, our first greeting upon arriving at Hong Kong should be from a townie of ours.

Yes, the world is certainly small!

We came in from sea by the Lyman Pass, taking aboard our pilot just outside the Pedro Banco light-house. The morning was dull and cloudy. All along the borders of the roadstead lay anchored a fleet of fishing junks; these in the hazy distance I at first supposed to be can-boats. Later observation, however, revealed the oddest and queerest of sailing craft.

I should never have been able to tell which was the bow though, if it had not been for the prominence of two very blue eyes which I was informed gave the vessel the power of finding her way about the harbor on dark nights.

"No eyes, how can we?" concluded my informant, wisely shaking his head as he proposed the question.

Our pilot was a jolly fat fellow. He put on his shoes when he came over the rail, relating strangely tragic tales in a soft confidential whisper. He watched the land with a careful scrutiny, scanned the clouds and sails at every other turn in his walking and laughed and snickered continually.

We came to an anchor under the shadow of Victoria Peak shortly after ten o'clock and went ashore immediately.

Our sampan was one of the larger sort. It was managed by a family of five, who lived aboard and took their meals at no particular time of day in the stowaway crib back of the cabin.

There were two sails to the boat. These rolled up from the bottom like window curtains and were contrived out of ungainly shaped pieces of mahogany-colored canvas that were strengthened at several points between foot-ropes and peak by having strips of bamboo fastened across the surface which also served as a reef when less sail was wanted.

The sheets are always lashed by one of the young women of the family, while barefooted Mrs. Kongwoofat with a baby strapped to her brawny shoulders stood guard at the helm.

There was a coxy cabin at our disposal, all beautifully white in the strips of straw matting covering its seats and floor, and the tiny sliding shutters through which we used to watch our neighbors at a pleasant distance were a never ending source of delight to us.

Hong Kong is built on tremendous elevations that rise from directly out the sea and finally terminate in a cluster of rugged mountain peaks, which at the highest point attain an altitude of nearly two thousand feet.

Back from the peaks, or esplanade, the streets are built in rows of winding terraces, one above the other, which forming a sort of opening their columns for statements. But aware that the Dr. Miles Medical Co. are re-testimonial from H. Mellin, of Auburn, Ind., who for two years suffered a protracted skip-no relief, but one bottle of Dr. Miles' New suffering with nervous disease, headache and prostration," writes Dr. Miles' Nervine Nervine, and in two weeks gained eight pounds in weight. I could not lie down to sleep, but now sleep perfectly easy, and am still improving wonderfully. Cannot say enough for the Nervine.—Mrs. L. H. Millard, Dunkirk, N. Y.

"One customer and Nervine gained fifteen pounds in weight," says Green & Noyes, Carland, N. Y. Trial bottles and elegant

Ayer's Pills

Are better known and more generally used than any other cathartic.
Singularly effective, purely vegetable, and free from mercury or any other injurious drug, this is the ideal family medicine. Though prompt and energetic in their action, the use of these pills is attended with only the best results. Their effect is to strengthen and regulate the organic functions, being especially beneficial in the various derangements of the stomach, liver, and bowels.

Ayer's Pills

are recommended by all the leading physicians and druggists, as the most prompt and effective remedy for biliousness, nausea, constiveness, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, jaundice, drowsiness, pain in the side, and sick headache; also to relieve colds, fevers, neuralgia, and rheumatism. They are taken with great benefit in children and the diseases peculiar to the South. For travelers, whether by land or sea,

Ayer's Pills

are the best, and should never be omitted in the outfit. To preserve their medicinal integrity in all climates, they are put up in bottles as well as boxes.

"I have used Ayer's Pills in my family for several years, and always found them to be a mild and excellent purgative, having a good effect on the liver. It is the best pill used."

THE ROCKLANDS DOWNED THEM.

Westbrook Champions Succumb to the Prowess of Our Boys.

The Presumptuous Cross Bars With Rockland—Home Team Takes Lead and Holds It—Plucky Rally Visitors—But All to No Purpose.

The Westbrook team, which had been downed by the Rocklands on the grounds. The visitors were two men only seven of their men showing up in Westbrook. But they got two here—C. D. Chaples of this city and Wardwell of Camden—and they put bill. George B. Matthews of Westbrook amputated and killed the difficult possibility.

Morton, the big, good-looking and line 1st baseman of Westbrook, faced and opened the ball with a not base hit past base, got 2nd on a wild pitch. Webb hit Winslow who fumbled it, leaving Webb a life at 1st and advancing Morton to 3d. Harmon made an Indian club of his bat and ran down when Matthews said "three strikes." West hit safe over second and Morton scored, while Webb, who had gone second on the pitch, took 3d. Burnell hit a slow one in front of Gray, who felled it slow, and Burnell crowded on 1st.
Swan followed the beautiful example set by Harmon and struck out, while Spiller said dillo.

Hyer, he of the jockey cap, strooped daintily to the plate and opened the turn for Rockland.
His eye was good and Webb's out and in were wanted, for Willie took first on four bawls by the umpire. He then stole second very handily. Webb, he of the patent leather shoes, then hit Winslow with the ball, and the pedagogue from Camden caroled to 1st. Simonton then dropped a very routine base hit over 3d, while Hyer went 3d and Wilbur 2nd.
Gray fouled out, Glover flew out, and then Winslow, he of the blonde hair, tapped home plate with the willow, and with Boston Globe enterprise knocked out a dandy two-bagger, which sent Hyer and Wilbur over the plate, where he shortly followed them, making a fine run home on a short passed ball. His hit with two men out and two men on the bases was a creamy one. Howard then hit to 2nd who tumbled it, letting home Simon, who had worked his way to 3d. Jason then hit short to pitcher and was thrown out at 1st.

End of 1st inning—Rockland 4, Presump-scot 1.

Chaples faced Gray, hit bot to Winslow who felled it well, and the batter's trolley was off.
Wardwell hit to Howard and spaced for 1st.
Howard met him but nearly lost the wily Cam-denite in his pink shirt, who made a tumble slide and nearly got through. Morton made another base hit to right. Webb hit to Hyer who cleverly stopped his career at 1st.

Spear, the High School graduate, made a base hit, a heavy, Hawaii off in late field.
Wardwell felled it slowly, and Spear, reared on 2nd. Hyer hit a vicious one to right, but Chaples gathered it in as he does the nickels on the cars, in a very gentlemanly manner, and Hyer returned to the boys around the water pit. Wilbur hit to right, Morton got it, and then to Harmon, who felled it. Spear, who is trying for home, Simon then hit over 2nd, advancing Wilbur a bag, Gray, he of the goggles smile, then hit a real nice liner to long center, and Wilbur and Simonton crossed the plate. Gray then got 3d on passed ball and scored on a wild throw to 3d. Glover hit to 3d, who toyed with it and gave the Peckskill veteran a life on 1st. He got second on a pitch and 3d on Winslow's hit to short, who fumbled it. Howard then sent a fly to Chaples and he was out.

End of 2d inning—Rockland 7, Presump-
scot 1.

Harmon hit to Hyer, a very reckless proceeding, and was hurriedly thrown out at 1st.
West had a good eye, and "Chummy" couldn't foot him, and West went out and stood on 1st.
He got 2nd on a wild pitch, and 3d on wild throw from right field. Burnell hit to Winslow who threw home, cutting off West. Swan then struck out.

Jason had to 3d, who fell all over the ball, but the well-oiled center fielder with the fancy garters on his sleeves was choked off trying to steal 2nd. Howard then lined out a fine one over 2nd. But it did no good, for Hyer struck out and Wilbur knocked a pop fly to Webb who took it in.

scot 1.

Spiller hit to Hyer, who did him up beautifully at 1st with the assistance of Squire Howard. Chaples knocked a hot shot to center and took 2d on a wild pitch. Wardwell then popped a fly to Winslow and retired, while Simon sent a long one to Jason who gathered it quietly in.

Simon sent a little pop fly to shot, and was out. Gray hit a long one out between center and left. It looked like a sale one, but West is a sprinter. He shot towards left like a rocket and took the ball but out of the air.
I was a wild shot. He got was warmly applauded. Glover then patted the sphere for a lovely safe one over 3d. Winslow followed him with another fine hit, but was put out trying for second.

End of 4th inning—Rockland 7, Presump-
scot 1.

Webb hit to Glover in left, who is always reliable, and Webb didn't run the bases any more in that inning. Harmon hit to Gray, and he was out at 1st. West hit to Jason in center.
Jason, who is to be outdone by the opposition, dispatched West's one catch.

Howard hit bot to short who made a surprising pick up and threw runner out at 1st. Jason fled a pretty one over 2nd. Spear fanned air, and Hyer hit a run to pitcher and was out.
scot 1.

Burnell struck out; Swan hit to Winslow out at 1st; Spiller hit an easy one into field and got 1st; Wardwell hit bot to Howard, out.
Wilbur punted out a darling single over 2nd, and got 2nd on passed ball; Simonton knocked pop fly to Webb and was out; Gray hit to short and was out at 1st; Wilbur getting 3d; Glover out on pop foul to 3d.

scot 1.

And now Presumptuous rallied. Morton hit a beauty to long center. Jason threw high to 2nd to head runner off. Winslow by high jump made a wonderful catch and saved Morton getting 3d and perhaps a scoring. Webb then picked out a good one and rapped it over

The Westbrook team, which had been
downed by the Rocklands on the
in Westbrook. But they got two
here—C. D. Chaples of this city and Wardwell of Camden—and they put
bill. George B. Matthews of Westbrook
amputated and killed the difficult possibility.

line 1st baseman of Westbrook, faced
and opened the ball with a not base hit past
base, got 2nd on a wild pitch. Webb hit Winslow who fumbled it, leaving Webb a life at 1st and advancing Morton to 3d. Harmon
made an Indian club of his bat and ran down
when Matthews said "three strikes." West hit
safe over second and Morton scored, while Webb, who had gone second on the pitch, took
3d. Burnell hit a slow one in front of Gray, who felled it slow, and Burnell crowded on 1st.
Swan followed the beautiful example set by
dillo.

Hyer, he of the jockey cap, strooped daintily
to the plate and opened the turn for Rockland.
His eye was good and Webb's out and in
were wanted, for Willie took first on four bawls
by the umpire. He then stole second very
handily. Webb, he of the patent leather shoes, then hit Winslow with the ball, and the ped-
ton then dropped a very routine base hit over 3d, while Hyer went 3d and Wilbur 2nd.
Gray fouled out, Glover flew out, and then Winslow, he of the blonde hair, tapped home
plate with the willow, and with Boston Globe
enterprise knocked out a dandy two-bagger,
which sent Hyer and Wilbur over the plate,
where he shortly followed them, making a fine
creamy one. Howard then hit to 2nd who tumbled
it, letting home Simon, who had
pitcher and was thrown out at 1st.

scot 1.

Chaples faced Gray, hit bot to Winslow who
felled it well, and the batter's trolley was off.
Wardwell hit to Howard and spaced for 1st.
Howard met him but nearly lost the wily Cam-
slide and nearly got through. Morton made
who cleverly stopped his career at 1st.

base hit, a heavy, Hawaii off in late field.
on 2nd. Hyer hit a vicious one to right, but Chaples gathered it in as he does the nickels
on the cars, in a very gentlemanly manner,
and Hyer returned to the boys around the
water pit. Wilbur hit to right, Morton got it, and then to Harmon, who felled it. Spear, who
is trying for home, Simon then hit over
goggles smile, then hit a real nice liner to
long center, and Wilbur and Simonton crossed
the plate. Gray then got 3d on passed ball
and scored on a wild throw to 3d. Glover hit
to 3d, who toyed with it and gave the Peckskill
veteran a life on 1st. He got second on a pitch and 3d on Winslow's hit to short, who fumbled
it. Howard then sent a fly to Chaples and he was out.

scot 1.

Harmon hit to Hyer, a very reckless proceeding, and was hurriedly thrown out at 1st.
West had a good eye, and "Chummy" couldn't
foot him, and West went out and stood on 1st.
He got 2nd on a wild pitch, and 3d on wild
throw from right field. Burnell hit to Winslow
who threw home, cutting off West. Swan then struck out.

ball, but the well-oiled center fielder with the
fancy garters on his sleeves was choked off
trying to steal 2nd. Howard then lined out a fine one over 2nd. But it did no good, for
fly to Webb who took it in.

scot 1.

Spiller hit to Hyer, who did him up beautifully at 1st with the assistance of Squire How-
ard. Chaples knocked a hot shot to center and
popped a fly to Winslow and retired, while Simon sent a long one to Jason who gathered
it quietly in.

Simon sent a little pop fly to shot, and
a rocket and took the ball but out of the air.
I was a wild shot. He got was warmly ap-
him with another fine hit, but was put out trying for second.

scot 1.

Webb hit to Glover in left, who is always reliable, and Webb didn't run the bases any more in that inning. Harmon hit to Gray, and he was out at 1st. West hit to Jason in center.
Jason, who is to be outdone by the opposition, dispatched West's one catch.

ing pick up and threw runner out at 1st. Jason fled a pretty one over 2nd. Spear fanned
air, and Hyer hit a run to pitcher and was out.

W. W. Case has been at West Sullivan, called there by business connected with the granite company in which he, Capt. Emery Colcord, C. O. Emery and others are interested.

J. A. Tolman returned Thursday from his run between Portland and Swanton, N. H., where he has been learning the route, and supplying the position of clerk during the regular clerk's absence by sickness.

Miss Gertrude Drake of Natick, Mass., who visited her cousin, Mrs. S. M. Veazie, in this city last summer, has dangerously ill either home, from the effect of swallowing an orange seed, which lodged in some dangerous place.
At last reports there was some little hope of recovery.

W. W. Thompson of Providence, R. I., was in the city over Sunday, returning to Providence last evening. Mr. Thompson is the senior member of the firm of W. W. Thompson & Co., book publishers. Mr. Thompson formerly made his headquarters in Rockland, and his wife is a well known Rockland lady, nee Miss Alma Conary.

The Bangor Commercial describes a recent event in Tyngsboro, Mass., from which we take the following: "Miss Clara W. Gregory a bright Rockland young girl who is studying at the Emerson College of Oratory in Boston, made a decided hit at the dedication of the hall last Wednesday evening. Miss Gregory has the stage presence and a pleasing voice and her selections were well received and thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience present. She will graduate from the college in June and her success as a public reader is assured."

The Rubinstein Club met with Mrs. Wm. H.
White, Middle street, Tuesday evening. Miss Rand, who was invited to sing, was present but declined to favor the club with an exhibition of her vocal style. The program consisted of songs by Mrs. G. M. Barney, Mrs. A. H.
Berry, Mrs. E. M. Petty and Mrs. I. N.
Montford. A guitar solo was most charmingly rendered by Mrs. A. Sidney Snow, and a banjo solo by Mrs. F. B. Miller. A violin and piano duet by Miss Edith Howe of Union and Mrs. M. P. Judkins afforded pleasing variety.
The next meeting will be with Mrs. F. E.
Hitchcock on Monday, the 13th inst.

The residence of Capt. B. A. Emery at Owl's Head was the scene of a very pretty wedding on the evening of Feb. 1. The parties chiefly interested were Capt. Emery's son, Sidney P., and Miss Annie L. Hutchinson of this city.
The bride wore a pearl-colored henrietta cloth, trimmed simply but with taste, and set off by modest bouquets of rosebuds, presenting a charming effect. The knot was tied by Rev.
J. H. Parshley of Rockland, and a large company of relatives were in attendance from this city. Elegant presents, delicate refreshments, universal good humor and an old-fashioned neighborly made the occasion indelible in the memory. Mr and Mrs. Emery go to Massachusetts to reside until summer when they home.

The Pomological and Horticultural departments will receive more attention than ever, and the value of these are recognized by all. New features of importance have been added, and a complete exhibit assured. Especially in the line of Maine industries may a large increase be looked for, the officers recognizing the fact that in bringing out these they will promote materially the prosperity of the State. The painting of the entire buildings of the society, and thorough repairs made, add much to the appearance of the grounds, and must add also to the attendance. No feature is being neglected which can increase the value of the Maine State Fair in promoting the welfare and prosperity of the State of Maine. The aim has been, is, and will be, to make it a complete exhibition of Maine products. Maine crops, Maine stock and Maine industries. As such it merits hearty support and patronage, and for this reason we urge that the dates, Sept. 5-6-7-8, be set apart for a vacation season to be spent at the Maine State Fair. Those wishing to exhibit or compete should send for premium lists and particulars to G. M. Twitchell, secretary, Augusta, Me.

Camden Expressive have been very entertaining. The faculty will have a recital next Friday evening.

A private dancing party will go to Oakland Wednesday evening.

J. B. Porter and wife entertained a few friends Monday evening of last week in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Childs of Washington who are summering here. Fruit and fruit lemonade were served. Mrs. E. S. Farwell delighted the company with several very musical Spanish songs, learned during a sojourn in Mexico. Another pleasing feature of the evening was the violin playing by Miss Katie Barker. The little lady plays very artistically, and it is a delight to hear her.

Mrs. E. J. Wardwell of Cambridge, who is a guest at Bay Point, gave a whist party to lady friends at the residence of her parents, Nath'l Jones and wife, Middle street, Tuesday p. m.

The tea given by Miss Anne Rice, Monday afternoon of last week, was an especially pretty affair. Mrs. M. A. Rice and Misses Josephine Losey, Addie Snow and Sadie Gilchrist served refreshments.

A musicale was given Thursday evening by Mrs. Ada Keene to Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Childs and wife.

The Shakespeare Society of this city had its annual picnic at Lake City Wednesday, taking dinner at the Lake City Inn. The committee of arrangements was Miss Nancy Burbank, Mesds. W. S. White and A. T. Blackington, Misses Stella Keene and Lottie Lawry. The tables were prettily decorated, and there were special menus for the occasion, bearing the Shakespearean Coat of Arms, (the work of Miss Carrie Erskine,) the name of the society, date and an appropriate quotation. After partaking of a sumptuous and deliciously prepared dinner, literary games were engaged in, which were very much enjoyed by all. The party left about 5 p. m. for Camden, thence by electric for Rockland, greatly pleased with their day's outing and sounding praises for Lake City Inn and its management.

Messrs. Hamilton & Sawyer have finished the dredging in Belfast Harbor under the last Congressional appropriation, and gone to Camden, where they have a contract to work out $12,000 worth. The work done here was on the eastern side of the harbor from the channel at the mouth of the Goose River to the deep water in the upper harbor. The channel dredged this year is 120 feet wide at its northwestern end, and considerably wider as it approaches the lower end. There is a depth of fifteen feet at mean low water. The bottom was found to be very soft mud with occasionally a boulder. There now remains a strip of shoal water (not over eight feet in some places at low water) from the channel just made to the wharves, which will be taken out later. After this is deepened Belfast will have one of the best harbors in Maine.

FREIGHTS AND CHARTERS.

Reported From Brown & Company's Weekly Freight Circular.

The condition of the freight market with reference to square-rigged vessels identified with distant foreign trade cannot be said to have improved this week, and the volume of business continues below expectation formed during earlier stages of the season. So far as the tonnage supply is concerned, the situation is certainly improving, the arrivals being light, the disengaged vessels at hand fewer than for many months and the inward bound fleet an exceptionally small one, yet the inquiry is not brisk enough to relieve the market of the monotony of dullness which has been its distinguishing feature during the protracted season.

in freight rates, and the demand for old iron, which is the only one of the freight market that is not depressed by the general depression of the market.

of the year, and the demand for yellow pine lumber ports are obtainable. Coastwise freights are depressed and for the most part weak. This is especially true of coal freights, the demand at the movement being small and the fleet considerably enlarged by accession of vessels employed during the greater part of the year in the Southern lumber and West India trades.

CHARTERS.—Sch. Ira B. Ellems, 263 tons, Darien to Rockland, lumber, $5.75.—Sch. Belle Hooper, Sullivan, Me., to New York, paving blocks, $15 per 1,000.—Sch. M. Hooper, St. Simons to Boston, lumber, $5.75.—Sch. Ira Bliss, Raritan River to Boston, low brick, $1.50 loaded and towed.—Sch. (Carrie L. Hix, hence to Portland, sand, loaded and discharged.—Sch. Jas. Boyd, Charleston to Weymouth, phosphate, $2.25.

COAL.—Sch. Alfred Keene, Hoboken to Richmond, 50 cents, thence to Plymouth, $1.50.—Barge Adelia, Carleton, Hoboken to Boston, 55 cents.—Sch. Jas. L. South Amboy to Ipswich, $1.10.—Sch. Ford, Hoboken to Rockland, 50 cents.—Addie Schaeffer, Pt. Johnson to Boston, 70 cents.—Sch. Laura E. Messer, South Amboy to Rockland, 75 cents.—Sch. Mary Langdon, Pt. its old-time importance, as in days of yore when Dr. Dodge and other well-known citizens lived there and did business.

Some of our tennis players are talking of a county tennis tournament. Among our export players this season are Misses Lizzie Lev-ensaler, Annie Lash and Martha Crawford, Messrs. W. B. Hyler, W. E. Mason and Geo.
B. Mathews. We hope to see the tournament played. Thomaston would come very near to capturing the banner.

Capt. Robert Dunn of Fort Payne, Ala., has been visiting in town. Capt. Dunn is engaged in the lumber business in Fort Payne. He reports business rather dull. The basket factory is running, but the other industries are at a standstill. Capt. Dunn is one of Thomaston's finest young men, and while our people wish well to Fort Payne they would not feel very bad to see Capt. Dunn and his estimable wife return and make Thomaston their home.

Capt. David J. Hodgman of Thomaston and Miss Carrie A. Harnden were married at Woolwich, the home of the bride, Wednesday, and left at once for a trip to the White Mountains. The bride at one time taught Thomaston's Grammar School, and during her sojourn here made many friends. Capt. Hodgman is one of Thomaston's most popular and capable master mariners. His vessel is ship Belle O'Brien, just arrived San Francisco from New York. Capt. E. C. Colley is in command of her for the present.

"A BACK NUMBER"

This is the slighting remark that is often applied to women who try to seem young, though they no longer look so. Sometimes appearances are deceitful. Female weakness, functional troubles, displacements and irregularities will add fifteen years to a woman's looks. These troubles are removed by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Try this remedy, all you whose beauty and freshness is fading from such causes, and no longer figure in society as a "back number." It's guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money paid for it returned. See guarantee on bottle wrapper.

A LEADER.

Since its first introduction, Electric Bitters has gained rapidly in popular favor, until now it is clearly in the lead among pure medicinal tonics and alteratives—containing nothing which permits its use as a beverage or intoxicant, it is recognized as the best and purest medicine for all ailments of Stomach, Liver or Kidneys. It will cure Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, and drive Malaria from the system. Satisfaction guaranteed with each bottle or the money will be

ASHWOOD.

Handsome Dark Seal Brown Stallion.

FOALING MAY 21, 1885.

No. 4430

RECORD 2.36. LAST HALF IN 1.15.

When but 4 years old, with little handling, By Wedgewood, No. 692. Record 2.19.

Stands 15 1-2 hands high. Weighs 1065 lbs.

By consulting the breeding of Ashwood it will be seen that he has an illustrious ancestry on the side of both sire and dam. The blood line of the dam of Ashwood are not only the best, but she is herself a wonderful mare. When five years old with but little training she was given a trial heat in 2.29. She is a mare of great constitution and courage, pure bred, and an unequalled road mare.
She has five colts, all good ones. One of them is called Lancer, a full brother of Ashwood, when twenty-five months old was a close second in 2.39.
This was done in a race with nine other colts, and on a heavy half-mile track. Wedgewood, his sire, was one of the gamiest campaigners that ever graced a track. His Grand Circuit performances in 1880 were a marvel to all who witnessed them, and gave him a world-wide reputation. Jack Spain, in a letter to the "Chicago Herald," pays this flattering tribute to Wedgewood: "One of the gamiest horses I ever drove. He never flinched and try heat after heat, and of less nerve would have given up and money. The race driver and he trotted in spect Park was the best display of courage saw between two horses." He is not only a but a sire of trotters. Pavonia, 2:15, Count 2:34, Nugget, 2:26 3-4, Ulys, 2:27, and Coquett, 2:18 3-4, and others of less note make him a good showing when we consider the that he sired but ten foals before his great paigne upon the track. When we realize that fourth or all the bests trotted in 2:15, or 1/2 trace directly to Alexander Abdullah, grandfather of Ashwood, it is not surprising that his descendants are the most eagerly sought, and com-the magnificent prices realized from their Ashwood has had but little handling but splendid rail, fine action, a good disposition, mettle of the finest.

He is also one of the finest roaders that wore leather, being perfectly fearless and safe any day to drive and a willing reader of ten per hour. This horse is a beauty both in col-style, being up-headed and trim built every-and is considered by the best judges to be as modest horse as can be produced. Speed is we are looking for today and in untrained we look at the speed producing lines, and will you find a horse more richly bred in lines than Ashwood. He has six colts in vicinity of Bangor to which the attention of breeders is invited. He will make the season of 1893 at the farm of F. L. SHAW, Rockville, Me.

New Process

The Lemon, the Orange, the Vanilla, contains more or less of a delicate flavoring substance, and the separation of this substance in a manner so as to retain all its freshness, sweetness and naturalness, requires the greatest experience and care.

DR. PRICE'S DELICIOUS FLAVORING EXTRACTS are prepared by a new process that gives to them the natural flavoring qualities, and are so concentrated that it requires but a small quantity to impart to a cake, pudding or cream, the delicate flavor of the fresh fruit. The leading chemists endorse their purity. The United States Government uses them.

RECOMMENDATION BY AN AUTHORITY

I have obtained the best results from the use of "Dr. Price's Flavoring Extracts," and think they are just what they are recommended to be, the strongest, purest and of the most delicate flavor.

UP THE HUDSON.

One of Our Correspondents Reviews Old Revolutionary Relics.

CORNWALL ON THE HUDSON

JULY 17, 1893.

DEAR EDITOR:

Again, I find myself amid surroundings once made famous and forever memorable by the noble Washington. We leave New York for a vacation and sail up this beautiful river, which in beauty and grandeur has no superior in America, if in the world, past the Highlands, visit West Point, and then to this beautiful village of Cornwall on the Hudson, with its neat and shady drives and walks that wind around and around through valleys and up steps until we find ourselves in the far-famed Highlands on the Hudson. Here we make a stop for a few days and enjoy the beauties of nature and the pure air from the mountains.

We next visit the historic city of Newburgh, three miles distant. It was in this city that Washington had his headquarters during the closing scenes of the Revolutionary War, and the old headquarters stone house yet stands. It was here that he disbanded the Continental Army. From this place Genl. Knox took the parting leave of his old commander, to retire to his stately mansion at Thomaston, Me.

From here Washington bade adieu to his old command to seek retirement at his beloved Mt. Vernon home.

This old house was built in 1770. It has one room with seven doors and one window, all kept in the original style, but in good repair, and in it are many valuable relics, one of which is Martha Washington's bridal watch. There are also a uniform of Washington and many of the arms and equipments of the army.

The grounds around the house are kept very nicely, and several pieces of artillery from the old army are there, mounted. One gun is familiar to every schoolboy of the land, standing in front of the house—the "Fifteeners."

Its capture by the British and recapture by the Americans made it notorious. A section of the boom and chain that was laid across the Hudson to prevent British vessels from passing up the river are there. The bell from Genl. Knox's headquarters at Murrenville is there, and many papers and public documents signed by the old heroes of the Revolution.

Newsp Notes and Brief Mention of Home Happenings

DEAR EDITOR:

Again, I find myself amid surroundings once made famous and forever memorable by the noble Washington. We leave New York for a vacation and sail up this beautiful river, which in beauty and grandeur has no superior in America, if in the world, past the Highlands, visit West Point, and then to this beautiful village of Cornwall on the Hudson, with its neat and shady drives and walks that wind around and around through valleys and up steps until we find ourselves in the far-famed Highlands on the Hudson. Here we make a stop for a few days and enjoy the beauties of nature and the pure air from the mountains.
